

DCTC Policy 3.48 Academic Program Redesign

Part 1. Policy Statement.

The College shall submit to the Chancellor or designee for approval prior to implementation of all program redesigns that affect the approved name, CIP code, addition or deletion of related program alternatives, award conferred, or program credit length when the change exceeds the maximum or fails to meet the minimum program credit lengths set by Board policy. Prior approval is not required for changes in program credit length when the change is within the limits established by Board policy.

The College shall provide prior notice to the Chancellor or designee of all changes in programs' credit length.

Part 2. Definitions. (if any, otherwise remove this section)
